Dr. Arnold stated the students will have plenty of opportunity, through special events, to dress outside of the code, if passed. One example would be for Spirit week. In response to those who wondered why the policy is being proposed now, Dr. Arnold stated that the school district wanted to give parents plenty of time to bargain shop, get sales and also to present the issue before Christmas, in case some were looking to buy clothes that would be suitable next school year (2009-10), which when the policy will go into effect. Dr. Arnold also noted that information regarding the proposed policy was noted on the front page of every school newsletter and on the front page of the Pocono Record, in addition to being continually posted on the PVSD website, with updates each time there was a change made to the policy. He also stated that the school district really tried to get the word out. He apologized if people felt that not enough was done. - Mr. Murphy asked Ms. Grammes about an increase that was shown in breakfast participation. And a decline in a la carte sales.

- Mr. Murphy made a statement regarding the dress code policy. He commented on Mr. Hinton’s statements by saying that Mr. Hinton did a very good job. He also stated that he is not 100% in favor of everything that is in the policy and urged people to send Dr. Arnold their suggestions so that we can refine the policy, if need be, in order to make it better for everyone. He feels this policy will be a positive thing for everyone.

- Mr. Murphy addressed comments regarding the 30 students involved in constructing the dress code policy by stating that they were randomly picked from three different buildings. • Mr. Sabia reiterated what Mr. Murphy stated. He also is not 100% in favor of everything, but feels that things are getting out of hand and we need to bring everyone together. He noted that the policy is not permanent and can be tweaked. He also stated that teachers will also have some kind of a dress code.
• Ryan Hinton commented on the PVHS Program of Studies, which was not on the agenda tonight. He commended the increase in AP courses. He also stated that the school district should take the initiative and be the first to pass the 2009-10 calendar. He also commented on Board Policy #221 by stating that the Board members, along with faculty and staff, should also be adhering to the same standards of the dress policy.
• Harvey Frable stated that our soldiers who fight for our freedom conform to a dress code. He stated that we are only asking the students to start to dress for success. He also stated that he does not agree with everything in the policy and that the school district is open-minded with regard to proposed changes.

• Susan Young, Chestnuthill Township, asked the Board to consider a dress down Friday.
