Our 4th inductee to the 2018 Pleasant Valley Hall of Fame:

Mr. Joe Scheks

Joe was an art instructor at Pleasant Valley High School for 30 years, retiring in 1996. Joe attended Saucon Valley High School, and attended Kutztown University where he graduated in 1966. He came to Pleasant Valley immediately upon graduation to teach art.

While in high school, Joe was a 4 year letter winner in Track and Field collecting 12 medals, 8 of which were gold in both leagues and districts. He was a silver medalist at states in the long jump and still holds the school record at Saucon Valley High School after 58 years. At Kutztown University, Joe competed on their Track and Field team for 4 years and was inducted into the Kutztown University Hall of Fame in 2017.

Honors Received:

While at Pleasant Valley, Joe served as an Art Instructor for 30 years. He also the Art Department Head, and was also a member of the Principals Advisory Committee, the Curriculum committee, and a PVEA contract negotiator. Joe started the Track and Field team at PV and was the head coach for 18 years. His biggest accomplishment came in 1984 as he coached the Girls' Track and Field team to an undefeated season, the 1st in any sport in Pleasant Valley's history. Joe also started the wrestling program at PV and was the head coach for 8 years. Joe feels his biggest accomplishment at PV is the many relationships he still has with former students whom he helped mold throughout his teaching career.

Joe currently resides in Bath, PA with his wife Judy of 48 years. He has 4 children, and 8 grandchildren
Congratulations to Mr. Joe Scheks!
